

The anti-Kerry film "stolen honor" appears to be not serving public interest, but instead Sinclair's interests in particular. It reminds me of my experience with TV programs in a dictatorship, East Germany, against prominent figures in the "free west" during the cold war. KD